Career Workshops

Reflecting on our MAP Program, high school and college students engaged in a dynamic 5-week journey focused on honing their presentation skills. Participants crafted compelling business pitches, culminating in presentations to industry experts. Meanwhile, at Estancia High School, students immersed themselves in a comprehensive workshop series covering essential employability skills like teamwork, communication, and financial literacy. At Golden West College, Cosmetology and Business students had the unique

Tours, Tours, Tours

Over the past months, we've been on an enriching journey with students from various schools, exploring exciting career paths through our site tours. From Chapman University's Dodge College of Film and Media Arts to Rogue Creatives, students witnessed firsthand the magic of filmmaking and the daily operations of the Digital Media Arts field. At Fullerton College, they delved into cybersecurity, manufacturing, and even simulated crime scenes, while at the UCI Paul Merage School of Business, they discovered
